TELL US A STORY ABOUT CAMEOS

Have you ever written a short story … or thought you might like to try? Well here's your opportunity to have a go!

We would like you to write a story for us. The contents can be entirely of your own choosing (plot, characters etc.). However, the only stipulation is that you must incorporate into your narrative the names of all twelve Cameo pieces – either as part of the storyline or just in a passing reference.

Your story must be no less than 1,000 and no more than 2,000 words in length. The two winning stories (one from North America and one from Europe/Australia) will be published in a future issue of Cottage Country accompanied by illustrations specially commissioned by us.

Please send your completed typed manuscript, quoting your name, address and Guild number, to your Guild Office to arrive not later than 1st October 1992.

The winners will also receive a set of Cameos plus the original display case, signed in the wood by David Winter, which we first thought of presenting the Cameos in. (This idea was superseded by the diorama.) Only two samples were ever made – one of them is pictured below left.

WIN THE ORIGINAL DISPLAY CASE AND A SET OF CAMEOS

The names of the Cameos are:

Lych Gate
The Privy
The Potting Shed
One Man Jail
Barley Malt Kiln
Poultry Ark
Welsh Pig Pen
Market Day
Brooklet Bridge
Greenwood Wagon
Saddle Steps
Penny Wishing Well

Not many people know...

...that David Winter has only marked two pieces with the month in which they were sculpted as well as the year – Robin Hood's Hideaway (Sept. 1986) and Queen Elizabeth Slept Here (May 1987).

...that Tythe Barn was originally going to be called Farm Barn.

...that the most popular David Winter Cottage with UK collectors during 1991 was Drover's Cottage.

In the USA it was Inglenook Cottage...

...and in Canada and Australia, Fred's Home: "Merry Christmas, Uncle Ebenezer," said Scrooge's nephew Fred, "and a Happy New Year."

(...they do now!)

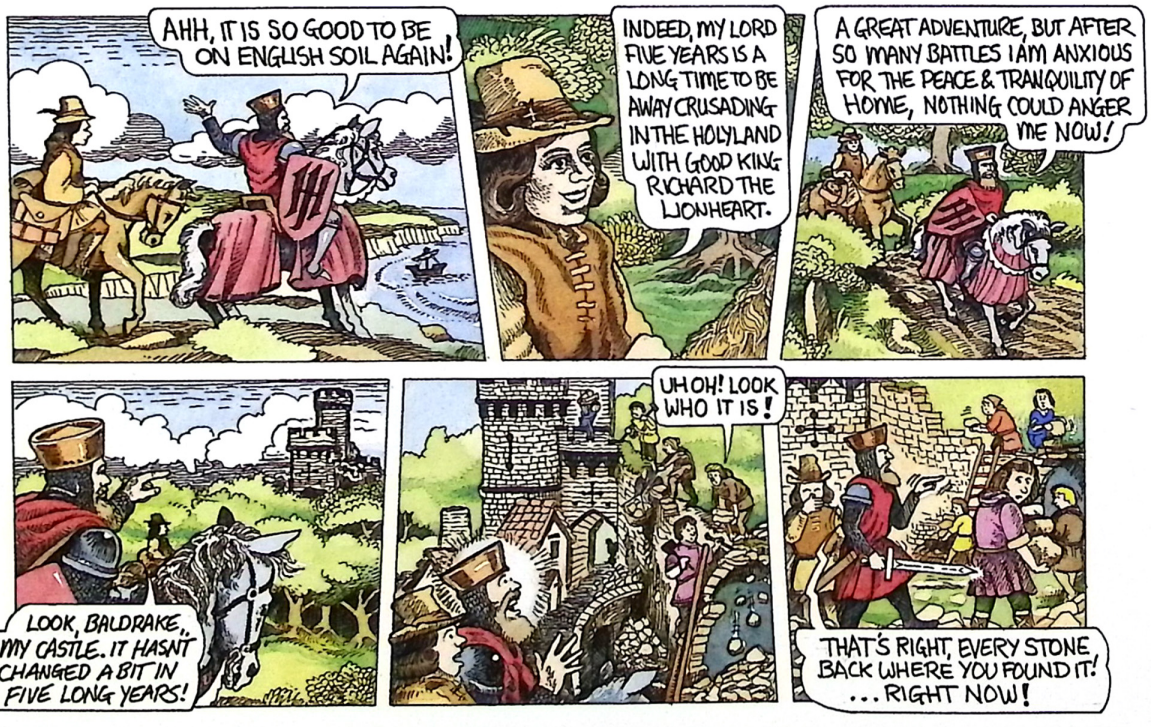
THE VILLAGERS



AHH, IT IS SO GOOD TO BE ON ENGLISH SOIL AGAIN!
INDEED, MY LORD FIVE YEARS IS A LONG TIME TO BE AWAY CRUSADING IN THE HOLYLAND WITH GOOD KING RICHARD THE LIONHEART.
A GREAT ADVENTURE, BUT AFTER SO MANY BATTLES I AM ANXIOUS FOR THE PEACE & TRANQUILITY OF HOME, NOTHING COULD ANGER ME NOW!
LOOK, BALDRAKE, MY CASTLE. IT HASN'T CHANGED A BIT IN FIVE LONG YEARS!
UH OH! LOOK WHO IT IS!
THAT'S RIGHT, EVERY STONE BACK WHERE YOU FOUND IT! ... RIGHT NOW!

SPOT THE DIFFERENCE

by Frederick Schiess

The two photographs below both show Cornish Engine House – but they are not identical. With a pen, put a ring round the differences on the RIGHT-HAND photograph. There are ten differences in all. Then cut out your completed entry and send it in an envelope marked SQUEAK !!! No. 6 to your Guild office to arrive not later than October 1st 1992. (Don't forget to fill in your name, address and Guild number.)

The sender of the first correct answer drawn by our adjudicator will win the Cornish Engine House used for the photograph below – signed by both David Winter and John Hine.

N.B. Only answers on original cut-outs will be accepted. No photocopies, letters or postcards for this puzzle, please.
